Whale Overlaps (Q4 2025 Filings)

[Whale] Leopold Aschenbrenner (Situational Awareness)

High Conviction Overlaps:

- BE (Bloom Energy) - Core position (20.6% weight)
- CORZ (Core Scientific) - High conviction (9.8% weight)
- APLD (Applied Digital) - High conviction (6.5% weight)
- SNDK (SanDisk) - Massive build-out (5.9% weight)
- CIFR (Cipher Mining) - Overlap (3.6% weight)
- SEI (Solaris Energy) - Overlap (2.0% weight)
- RIOT (Riot Platforms) - Overlap (1.8% weight)
- HUT (Hut 8) - Overlap (0.9% weight)
- CLSK (CleanSpark) - New position (0.4% weight)
- LBRT (Liberty Energy) - New position (0.2% weight)
- LITE (Lumentum) - High conviction (11.2% weight)

Analysis: Extremely high overlap with the "AI Infrastructure/Power" theme. The portfolio is heavily aligned with Aschenbrenner's pivot from chips to the physical backbone (power, cooling, and data center capacity).

[Whale] Steven Cohen (Point72), Daniel Sundheim (D1), David Tepper (Appaloosa), Philippe Laffont

Note: Based on available top-holding summaries for Q4 2025, no specific high-conviction symbol overlaps were explicitly identified in the provided snippets, although these managers typically hold large-cap staples (AAPL, AMZN, GOOGL) which are also present in the portfolio.

Conclusion

The portfolio shows a near-perfect strategic alignment with Leopold Aschenbrenner's high-conviction bets on AI physical infrastructure and energy. This suggests a strong thematic concentration in the AGI build-out sector.
