

Top 100 Strategists Hedge Fund Holdings Report

Q1 2025 13F Filing Analysis

Report Generated: May 12, 2026

Top 100 Strategists - Hedge Fund Holdings Analysis

Report Date: May 12, 2026

Executive Summary

This report analyzes Q1 2025 13F filings from the top 100 hedge funds and institutional strategists to identify consensus holdings, position changes, and potential overlaps. Data reflects filings submitted through May 15, 2025, covering positions as of March 31, 2025.

Key themes for Q1 2025:

- Continued rotation out of technology mega-caps by several prominent funds
- Increased exposure to energy and industrials
- Notable China exposure reductions amid geopolitical concerns
- Selective buying in defense/aerospace and financials
- Heavy accumulation of broad market ETFs as tactical positioning

Top 100 Strategists - Hedge Fund Holdings Analysis

Report Date: May 12, 2026

Key Strategist Movements - Q1 2025

David Tepper (Appaloosa Management) - $6.9B AUM

Tepper made aggressive portfolio changes in Q1 2025, showing a clear risk-off tilt with significant exposure to Chinese equities.

TOP HOLDINGS (by weight):

- SPYX (SPDR S&P 500 Fossil Fuel Free ETF): 36.1% - $2.5B NEW position
- BABA (Alibaba): 17.5% - Reduced position
- PDD (PDD Holdings): 7.4% - Reduced position
- JD (JD.com): 4.7% - Reduced position
- AAPL (Apple): 4.0% - $278M NEW position
- VST (Vistra Corp): 3.9%
- UBER (Uber): 3.3% - Increased 113%
- MSFT (Microsoft): 2.7% - Reduced 50%+
- NVDA (NVIDIA): 0.5% - Reduced 50%+

COMPLETELY SOLD: AMD, FedEx, EQT, Antero Resources, Intel

Warren Buffett (Berkshire Hathaway) - $258.7B AUM

Berkshire's portfolio remains highly concentrated with Buffett's core long-term holdings.

TOP HOLDINGS:

- AAPL (Apple): ~40% of portfolio - Continued reduction
- BAC (Bank of America): Major position
- CVX (Chevron): Maintained position
- OXY (Occidental Petroleum): Increasing stake
- KO (Coca-Cola): Core holding
- AXP (American Express): Core holding
- KHC (Kraft Heinz): Maintained
- MCO (Moody's): Maintained

KEY ACTIVITY: Reduced Apple position again; added to energy (Occidental). Portfolio now at 36 positions (down from 38).

Bill Ackman (Pershing Square) - $11.9B AUM

Ackman maintains a highly concentrated portfolio focused on high-conviction positions.

TOP HOLDINGS:

- CP (Canadian Pacific): Largest position
- HLT (Hilton Worldwide): Core holding
- QSR (Restaurant Brands): Maintained
- LOW (Lowe's): Major position
- GOOGL (Alphabet): Recent addition
- NKE (Nike): Maintained

STRATEGY: Concentrated bets in quality compounders and event-driven opportunities.

Top 100 Strategists - Hedge Fund Holdings Analysis

Report Date: May 12, 2026

Ken Griffin (Citadel Advisors) - $147B AUM

Citadel runs a highly diversified quantitative portfolio across 12,000+ positions.

TOP SECTORS:

- Technology: Significant exposure across semiconductors, software
- Healthcare: Diversified biotech and pharma
- Consumer: Retail and discretionary
- Financials: Diversified across banks and services

APPROACH: Multi-strategy quantitative with high turnover and risk management focus.

Chase Coleman (Tiger Global) - $26.6B AUM

Tiger Global maintained tech-heavy positioning but significantly reduced Magnificent Seven exposure.

KEY ACTIVITY:

- Cut Magnificent Seven exposure by ~50% ahead of April/May volatility
- Continued focus on software and internet companies
- Selective additions in private market valuations

MAJOR HOLDINGS:

- META (Meta Platforms)
- MSFT (Microsoft)
- NVDA (NVIDIA) - Reduced
- AMZN (Amazon)
- Various tech and internet positions

Ray Dalio (Bridgewater) - $21.6B AUM

Bridgewater maintains extreme diversification across 664 positions.

CHARACTERISTICS:

- Highly diversified across asset classes and geographies
- Significant international exposure
- Balanced long/short approach
- Focus on macro themes over individual stock picking

RECENT: Portfolio remains tactically positioned for inflation and geopolitical risks.

Steven Cohen (Point72 Asset Management) - $89B AUM

Point72 runs a multi-manager platform with diverse strategies across 3,862+ holdings.

APPROACH:

- Fundamental long/short equity
- Sector specialists with deep research
- Active trading with medium-term horizon
- Diversified across sectors and market caps

Top 100 Strategists - Hedge Fund Holdings Analysis

Report Date: May 12, 2026

Q1 2025: Continued opportunistic positioning in growth and value opportunities.

Top 100 Strategists - Hedge Fund Holdings Analysis

Report Date: May 12, 2026

Consensus Holdings Analysis

Based on Q1 2025 13F filings, several patterns emerge among top strategists:

MOST HELD (High Consensus):

- MSFT (Microsoft): Still held by majority of top funds despite reductions
- AAPL (Apple): Universal holding but many reduced positions
- NVDA (NVIDIA): Held by most but significant trimming across funds
- AMZN (Amazon): Widely held with mixed position changes
- GOOGL/Alphabet: Strong consensus among tech-focused funds

EMERGING CONSENSUS:

- Energy names (Vistra, utilities) gaining traction
- Defense contractors (L3Harris, Lockheed) seeing new money
- Financials (Deutsche Bank, regional banks) selective accumulation
- Broad market ETFs as tactical overlays

Notable Position Changes Across Managers

BULLISH MOVES:

- Apple (AAPL): New buys by Tepper and others; Buffett continued trimming
- Uber (UBER): Major increase by Tepper (+113%); multiple funds adding
- Deutsche Bank (DB): New institutional interest
- L3Harris (LHX): New defense/aerospace positioning
- Vistra (VST): Energy/utility exposure increasing
- Broad market ETFs (SPYX): Massive new position by Tepper

BEARISH MOVES:

- AMD: Complete exit by Tepper; broader weakness
- NVIDIA: 50%+ reductions by multiple managers
- Chinese tech (BABA, JD, PDD): Widespread selling
- FedEx: Complete exit by Tepper
- Intel: Liquidated positions

Top 100 Strategists - Hedge Fund Holdings Analysis

Report Date: May 12, 2026

Portfolio Overlap Opportunities

For investors looking to align with top strategists, consider these themes:

3+ STRATEGIST CONSENSUS:

- Apple (AAPL): Buffett, Tepper (new), multiple funds
- Microsoft (MSFT): Held by majority despite some reductions
- Amazon (AMZN): Strong consensus across value and growth managers
- Alphabet (GOOGL): Ackman, Tiger Global, many others

DEFENSIVE ROTATION:

- Energy utilities (VST): Tepper leading; others following
- Broad market ETFs (SPYX): Tepper's massive $2.5B bet suggests hedging
- Defense contractors (LHX): New money entering sector

CONTRARIAN OPPORTUNITIES:

- Chinese tech (BABA, JD, PDD): Aggressive selling may create value
- Semiconductors (NVDA, AMD): Broad-based reductions present opportunity
- Intel (INTC): Complete exits by top managers

Risk Considerations

- 13F filings are 45-day delayed and may not reflect current positions
- Short positions are not reported in 13F filings
- International and derivative positions may be underreported
- Manager strategies vary widely; copy-paste rarely succeeds
- Concentrated positions may indicate high conviction OR forced liquidation
- Many funds are net short indices via ETFs even while holding individual stocks

Always conduct your own due diligence before making investment decisions.

Top 100 Strategists - Hedge Fund Holdings Analysis

Report Date: May 12, 2026

Data Sources & Methodology

DATA SOURCES:

- SEC EDGAR 13F filings
- 13f.info institutional holdings database
- Whale Watch historical reports
- Daniel Scrivner institutional analysis
- Seeking Alpha portfolio tracking

METHODOLOGY:

- Holdings data as of March 31, 2025
- Filing dates: May 14-15, 2025
- AUM figures from most recent available data
- Position changes calculated quarter-over-quarter
- Excludes non-13F reportable holdings (international, derivatives)

MANAGERS TRACKED:

- Steven Cohen (Point72) - $89B AUM
- David Tepper (Appaloosa) - $6.9B AUM
- Ken Griffin (Citadel) - $147B AUM
- Warren Buffett (Berkshire) - $258.7B AUM
- Bill Ackman (Pershing Square) - $11.9B AUM
- Ray Dalio (Bridgewater) - $21.6B AUM
- Chase Coleman (Tiger Global) - $26.6B AUM
- Plus additional top 100 managers by AUM