

Whale Watch Report

Q4 2025 13F Analysis | May 9, 2026

Executive Summary

This report tracks Q4 2025 13F filings from five high-conviction hedge funds: Point72 (Steven Cohen), D1 Capital (Daniel Sundheim), Appaloosa (David Tepper), Coatue (Philippe Laffont), and Situational Awareness (Leopold Aschenbrenner).

KEY THEME: AI infrastructure dominates whale portfolios. Point72 and Coatue maintain heavy semiconductor exposure (NVDA, TSM), while Situational Awareness pivoted from chip designers toward physical infrastructure -- data centers, power generation, and Bitcoin miners repurposing for AI workloads.

Manager-by-Manager Breakdown

1. Point72 Asset Management -- Steven Cohen

AUM: .8B | Holdings: 3,862 positions
Top 5: NVDA (.86B), TSM (.42B), AMZN (.21B), MSFT (.01B), ANET ()

Strategy: Highly diversified with +1,071 new positions in Q4. Heavy tilt toward Technology (30.4%) and Healthcare (15%). Notable: +157% add to TSM, +195% add to SE (Sea Limited).

2. D1 Capital Partners -- Daniel Sundheim

AUM: .7B | Holdings: 42 positions
Top 5: CLH (), FLS (), JHX (), RDDT (), SE ()

Strategy: Concentrated industrial-focused portfolio. Major new position in Reddit (RDDT) at 5.86% allocation. Sea Limited (SE) = 5.35% -- overlap with Point72.

3. Appaloosa LP -- David Tepper

AUM: .9B | Holdings: 39 positions
Top 5: BABA (~11%), GOOGL, AMZN, MU, META

Strategy: Reduced China exposure by ~20% in BABA while adding to U.S. semiconductors (MU, TSM). New positions in EWY and Ball Corp.

4. Coatue Management -- Philippe Laffont

AUM: .0B | Holdings: 52 positions
Top 5: GOOGL, TSM, MSFT, META, AMZN (~32% of portfolio)

Strategy: Major stake increases in AMAT (+80%), SPOT (+35%), NFLX (+60%), DASH (+80%). Exited BABA, CRWV, KKR, TEAM, HNGE, INTU completely.

5. Situational Awareness LP -- Leopold Aschenbrenner

AUM: .5B | Holdings: 29 positions
Top 5: BE (20.6%), CRWV (18.2%), LITE (11.2%), CORZ (9.8%), IREN (7.7%)

Strategy: Pivoted from chip hedges to AI infrastructure. Exited + in NVDA/AVGO/TSM/MU puts. Doubled down on CoreWeave (+672%), data centers, and power generation.

Risk Signals and Insights

Risk Signals

- 1. SIT exited + in semiconductor put hedges -- removing downside protection on NVDA, AVGO, TSM suggests conviction in AI demand durability or belief the correction is complete.
- 2. Tepper reducing China exposure -- trimming BABA while adding to U.S. semis signals geographic preference shift.
- 3. Coatue exiting BABA, CRWV, KKR completely -- suggests conviction breakdown vs. better opportunities elsewhere.
- 4. Point72 trimming MSFT -- rare reduction in core holding may indicate valuation concerns.

Actionable Insights

CONVICTION OVERLAP WATCH:

- Sea Limited (SE) -- Held by both Point72 () and D1 ()
- Coherent (COHR) -- Point72 holds , SIT added +211%
- Kilroy Realty (KRC) -- Data center REIT emerging in D1 () and SIT (NEW)

SECTOR ROTATION SIGNAL:

SITs pivot from chip designers to power/infrastructure suggests the AI capex cycle is entering Phase 2 -- from training chips to inference deployment and power generation.
