Key Insights

- NVIDIA (NVDA) appears as a top holding across multiple funds - strongest consensus play
- Point72 increased AUM by 50pct, indicating significant new capital deployment
- Point72 added QQQ ($1.56B) alongside healthcare names (UNH +1,201pct, PEP +965pct)
- Point72 maintains heavy options allocation (28.7pct) suggesting hedging
- D1 Capital shows strong growth (+22.9pct) with concentrated positions
- Coatue reduced exposure (-2.02pct) with 34 exits and 13 new positions
- Soroban maintains highest concentration (72.7pct in top 10 holdings)

Portfolio Comparison Notes

Thad's Energy-Focused Portfolio: Current holdings skew heavily toward energy (CVX, COP, VST, VDE, XOP) - a sector notably absent from top whale holdings in Q4 2025. Whales are doubling down on AI/tech/defensive positioning. Energy remains underrepresented in these filings.
