

Whale Watch Report

Q2 2026 13F Holdings Analysis (as of June 30, 2026 - filed Aug 14, 2026) | Generated: September 2, 2026

Executive Summary

This report compares your portfolio against the latest Q2 2026 13F filings from five major hedge fund managers: Steven Cohen (Point72), Daniel Sundheim (D1 Capital), David Tepper (Appaloosa), Philippe Laffont (Coatue), and Leopold Aschenbrenner (Situational Awareness LP). The dominant theme across all five whales is the AI build-out: memory/storage (MU, SNDK, STX), foundry silicon (TSM, AMD, INTC), hyperscalers (AMZN, GOOGL), and the power/data-center complex (BE, GEV, CEG, VRT). Aschenbrenner's fund is the purest expression - over 55% of it is Sandisk + Micron alone.

Fund weight = position value as % of that whale's 13F portfolio. SpaceX (SPCX, $6.3K across accounts) is excluded from the table (private-company proxy) but D1 Capital holds it as 61.9% of its entire fund ($21.5B) and Coatue 6.5% ($3.2B) - the single strongest whale overlap in the file.

Key Insights and Themes

Four- and Five-Whale Conviction Names

GOOGL/GOOG (5/5 whales): The only name every whale owns - Cohen 0.1%, Sundheim 0.8%, Tepper 8.5%, Laffont 3.6%. You hold $5.2K (2.2% of book).

AMZN (4/5): Tepper's largest position (15.4% of fund), Coatue $2.8B (5.8%), Cohen $1.1B. Your largest overlap: $22.8K (9.4% of book).

MU (4/5): Aschenbrenner's #2 at 27.5% ($5.6B), Tepper 14.6%, Coatue 7.5% - memory is the consensus AI trade. Note: Cohen holds MU shares but also $380M of MU puts (hedged). You hold $6.8K (2.8%).

TSM (4/5): Coatue's #1 (8.8%, $4.3B), Tepper 10.2%, Aschenbrenner 6.2%. You hold only $387 - the biggest gap between whale conviction and your exposure.

Storage and Memory Cluster (Sandisk, Seagate, Micron)

SNDK: Aschenbrenner's largest position - 28.0% of his entire fund ($5.7B) - plus Cohen ($113M). Your Roth holds $3.7K (+108%).

STX: Cohen's #6 (0.9%, $794M) and Sundheim. You hold $6.3K across two accounts (+103%).

Whales are concentrated in the same storage/memory complex you already own - validation for the SNDK/STX/MU trio.

AI Power and Bitcoin-Infrastructure Cluster

Bloom Energy (BE): Aschenbrenner's #3 (9.4%, $1.9B) plus Cohen. You hold $3.9K.

Core Scientific (CORZ): Aschenbrenner 3.3% ($666M) - your $7.1K position has a true whale backer.

RIOT / CLSK / APLD / HUT / WULF / CIFR: Cohen and Aschenbrenner both hold bitcoin-mining and AI-data-center converts (RIOT both, APLD both, CLSK both). Your crypto-infra cluster is squarely inside the whales' AI-power thesis.

GEV: Coatue's #6 (6.2%, $3.0B). You hold $1.2K. CEG: Coatue only. VRT: Laffont 0.6% + Cohen.

Divergences Worth Watching

JNJ: You are long $1.5K, but Cohen holds $484M of JNJ puts - Point72 is hedged/bearish where you are long.

MU: Cohen pairs shares with puts - his net exposure is smaller than the headline.

TSLA: Held only by Sundheim (0.5%) and Laffont (0.1%) at small weights - no whale shares your $3.5K conviction.

Manager note: The SIT position tracked here is Leopold Aschenbrenner's Situational Awareness LP ($20.2B, 26 positions, 1-yr est. return 612% per public trackers) - the most concentrated book of the five.
